Gears March newsletter, published to you all yesterday evening, has a glaring error! Brinkley's article regarding Daylight Saving Time change (on page 8) has the wrong date, the correct date for Daylight Saving Time this month is March 12th!

It is not Brinkley's fault. You see, he doesn't have opposing thumbs so he cannot turn calendar pages in order to check stuff for himself and I did not do so. (Sorry Brinkley)

Obviously, telepathic communications are not always perfect.

Thank you KN6JS for the heads up on this.
